LB 536A

to that one too. So I'm at a total loss as to what I can do, we can do, to help agriculture help itself to provide some farm opportunities, to provide jobs, to provide markets. So that's what this search is all about. And I am dying to find out an area of weakness in your...in your armor, if you may, to find where we can cut...find something that you want. And I've offered you some things in the past on other bills. I recognize that may not be what you want. But I just want you to know I'm wide open for the next few days of reaching...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...Politics 101 conclusion. I listened very carefully this morning to your...did you say "one minute" or "time"?

SENATOR CUDABACK: I said "one minute", Senator.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: So I listened very carefully this morning and I haven't yet found what you want, but I'm going to be looking and maybe we can...maybe we can come to a conclusion in the next eight days before all we...before we all get too far along in our tension to not be able to discuss it. Because obviously I have to wind up a little bit for this afternoon. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Senator Landis, followed by Senator Chambers on FA260 to LB 536A.
